

What's New M400 Series

(St. Louis, MO) May 26, 2015. Anchor Packaging, Inc. announces the launch of their newest product line, which incorporates ergonomic design, reduction of petroleum-based materials, and an upscale presentation with smooth, clean lines and wide viewing panels. Branded the WAVE series, these containers are available in 16, 24, and 32-ounce sizes. They join many other successful and award-winning Anchor products under the MicroRaves® trademark.
